St. Conti Communications to Help Adjust Chiropractor Messaging and Communications

...Next Level Wellness of Irvine Hires Agency for Public Relations Support

Mission Viejo, Calif. – February 6, 2008 – St. Conti Communications today announces it now provides public relations support for Next Level Wellness of Irvine. Work began in December 2007 as the agency worked with Next Level Wellness founder Vasili Gatsinaris, doctor of chiropractic, to develop a Web site map and messaging. St. Conti will provide marketing communications and speech writing as well as media relations support.

“Next Level Wellness has grown a lot in the past year, and we anticipate many more changes in 2008. We hired Donna St. Jean Conti and her team to help get the word out as we expand,” said Dr. Gatsinaris. “We also are very interested in increasing our online presence and will look to St. Conti’s advice to make that happen.”

About Dr. Vasili John Gatsinaris

Vasili John Gatsinaris, D.C., was born and raised in Southern California and graduated from the School of Biological Sciences at the University of California at Irvine (UCI) with a Bachelor of Science degree in biology. He completed a three-year internship within UCI’s sports medicine program before attending Los Angeles College of Chiropractic (LACC) to earn his doctorate of chiropractic. Always heavily involved with sports therapy, Gatsinaris is re-certified in Active Release Technique (ART) protocol each year. He volunteers as team doctor for the Devil Dogs roller hockey team as well as The Fullerton College water polo team and various local swim teams. In September 2007, Gatsinaris was selected as team physician for the Southern California Striders Track team and accompanied them to the World Masters Track and Field Championships in Riccione, Italy.
